TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR ENTRY SUBMISSION

All film submissions must be postmarked by August 15, 2006. All submissions must be complete, with all of the items on the checklist order completed to be considered for the submission. All submissions received after August 30, 2006 will be considered for next year's festival. Notification of acceptance into the 2006 film festival will occur no later than September 12, If accepted, a screening print must arrive at Screamfest's office not later than October 3, 2006. Entry selection is made from 1/2" VHS preview tape or DVD. All tapes must be clearly labeled. These screener preview tapes will become the property of Screamfest unless a self-addressed, self-stamped package is provided with original submission. All entries selected into Screamfest grant Screamfest the right to use any footage from the preview screener, and all submitted publicity photos and any other materials sent to us pertaining to this entry for Screamfest's promotional purposes, without limitations. Complete press kit for films will be requested only after acceptance. All prints must be picked up after the screening and signed for by the filmmaker. Eligibility - We will accept films completed after January 2003. We will accept films that have previously screened in other festivals. However, we will not screen films that have screened locally in other genre festivals prior to Screamfest. It is our goal to premiere new films. Entry fees are non refundable, and may be paid in the form of Visa, Mastercard, AMEX, Discover, check or money order paid in US dollars, only through a US affiliated bank. A $2.00 processing fee will be added to all credit card payments.

SCRIPTS

Scripts must be bound with industry standard brads and formatted correctly. Feature film script length should be at least 90 pages and not over 120. Short screenplays are not accepted. Scripts will not be returned. Please include synopsis bound with script after title page. Final deadline for scripts is August 15th, 2006. All scripts must be accompanied with a paragraph synopsis.
